7.3 Distinctiveness

The Quasquicentennial College provides a sound and secular education based on the vision and mission to train the younger generation to serve the country and community. The shifting of traditional paradigms to experiential and holistic learning served as an objective to empower the vulnerable and marginalized. The institution prioritizes women empowerment as well as students with disabilities. It aims to promote women sense of self-worth, their ability to determine their own choices and their rights to influence social change for themselves as well as for the society. It lays a special focus to the act of compassion and solidarity to provide challenges and support the vulnerable members of the community.

Religious and Moral Instructions were an integral part of the college curriculum which moulded and led the younger generation towards humanitarianism. The patriotic spirit were imparted by paying tribute to the martyrs. Students were taken to Vellore Museum in the month of July every year in order pay tribute to the martyrs of Vellore Sepoy Mutiny (10th July 1806) to inculcate the spirit of patriotism, respect for national traditions, ethics and values. They were educated more about Vellore Sepoy Revolution to emphasize the role of Vellore in India's freedom.

The college groomed the students into models of discipline and guided them to develop their leadership, secular outlook and selfless service to the nation. An array of awareness programmes like Girl Protection programme, Campaign on Swacch Bharath Mission, Swacch Bharath Abhiyan, Health and Hygiene were organized to ensure optimistic perspective towards the society.

Basic Leadership camps were conducted to develop leadership traits in cadets. Awareness programmes were conducted by Ten Tamil Nadu Battalions to educate the younger generation. Annual Training Camp was conducted to teach and train the cadets for B and C certificate examination. Students were trained in the Police Training Camps. A Female NCC cadet` of Voorhees College represented RDC camp held at Garrison Parade ground at New Delhi.

Students played a commendable role in sports and physical activities and brought several laurels to the college. Women students accomplished prizes and trophies in various events like kabaddi and weightlifting championship. The students actively represented in the All India Inter-University tournament and recognized as University Blues. Students represented in table tennis, hockey, hand ball, basketball, volley ball, athletics, kabaddi, football, weight lifting, best physique, power lifting and boxing.

To inculcate the habit of contributing to the society especially at the time of adversity, the College initiated a Programme “VCV Kitchen” for poor (COVID 19) where food was prepared in the College premises and distributed to the destitute and needy in and around Vellore. NSS-I,II,III Units of the college provided training to the students through special camps emphasizing the role of volunteers in rendering service to the nation.

To nurture academic excellence the Research Scholars of the college were motivated and trained to clear SET and NET Examination. The undergraduate and postgraduate students were motivated to pursue research. The College offers Coaching classes for TNPSC Group Exams, UPSC exam, SSC exam, CDS exam, Army Direct recruitment, Banking exam, IBPS exams, Tally exam, CAT/MAT exam, ICSI exam, ICAI exam, CMC Entrance exams, Entrepreneurial skill development to encourage the students and lead them towards employment.

“Counseling and Guidance” played a pivotal role to counsel student community to tide over educational and psychological problems. The emotional wellbeing of the students were prioritized. Regular Parent-Teachers meeting with department staff and subject-wise counseling were provided after every Semester. Bridge courses were conducted periodically to monitor and help the economically and socially slow-learners.

To enhance the communication skills and creative ability of the students, the college library was open on all working days except Sundays and National Holidays. Students were encouraged to borrow books in accordance to the library rules of the college. Digital library facilitates E-learning for the students. KOHA: International Library Software was installed in the library to provide advance library resource to the students. The Undergraduate students were taken to Central Library at Vellore and even enrolled in the American Library at Chennai

Scholarships are a boon to the student community. Full and half tuition fee is provided to students from the backward class, most backward class, the scheduled class, the scheduled tribes and Adi-Dravida Christians. Residential scholarship and Non-Residential scholarship, scholarship through the Director of Collegiate Education and College Endowment Scholarship, Student Aid Fund Work Service Programme / Earn While You Learn Scheme were provided to the welfare of the students. The poor and needy students were assigned work in the Office, Library and other Departments to assist existing Staff and were supported with fixed remuneration for their service.

The Post Graduate and Research Students of various discipline were encouraged to attend Seminars and Conferences conducted in and outside the College and Universities to have an academic exposure globally. The best articles and Poems of the students are published in the reputed Newspaper, Journals. Students accomplishment in the Inter-department Competitions, State-level Competitions, District Level Competitions are noteworthy which boost their self confidence.

The College ensured the safety of the Women Students and Staff through Anti-Harassment and Ant-Ragging Internal Committees. Motivational Talks by esteemed celebrities and renowned leaders were invited to the College on various occasions to encourage the students to face the challenges in the society. The College believed in 'Unity in Diversity' hence Celebrates the festivals of all religion like Christmas, Pongal, Deepavali and Ramzan.
